

BUILDING PRODUCTS INFORMATION SHEET

Class 1

EVA-LAST DECKING

Product description:

The ITI Decking System, featuring Eva-last composite decking, is a premium solution designed for both residential and commercial decking applications. Eva-last, is a bamboo and recycled plastic composite, has exceptional durability and aesthetic appeal.

Engineered for compatibility with substrates that meet New Zealand Standard 3604 (2011), the ITI Decking System offers flexibility in various architectural designs. Eva-last composite promises an above-ground lifespan exceeding 20 years when maintained as recommended, including regular cleaning maintenance.

Key Technical specifications:

Thickness: 25.4mm

Width: 135mm

Composite: Bamboo and recycled plastic

Durability: Class 2 (Above ground over 20 years)

Maintenance: Regular cleaning required for aesthetics.

Company details:

Place of Manufacture: China

Legal name: Evalast

<https://www.eva-last.co.nz/> & <https://www.eva-last.com/>

Room 1203, Floor 12, Tower 3, 33 Canton Road, Tsimshatsui, Hong Kong

New Zealand importer/distributor: ITI NZ Ltd.

26 Keeling Road, Henderson, Auckland 0612

(09) 6200260

www.ititimspec.nz

sales@ititimspec.co.nz

NZBN 326102

Compliance:

Relevant New Zealand Building Code Clauses:

NZS 3602 (2003)

Table. 2A.7

Supporting information.

Decking must achieve a minimum 15-year durability performance.

Limitations:

- Installation must comply with Eva last Decking Guide instructions.
- Installation to be carried out by trade qualified or LBP registered personnel.
- Suitable for various New Zealand environments, in accordance with local building codes and regulations.
- Fixings in accordance with Eva-last installation manual.

Design Requirements:

- Specifically designed for Eva-last usage in residential and commercial decking in New Zealand.
- Compatible with framing types as per NZS 3604 (2011).

Installation:

- In accordance with Eva-last Decking Guide.
- Detailed guidelines provided for cutting, coating, and fixing specifics for Eva-last.

Maintenance:

- Regular maintenance as detailed in Eva-last Decking Guide.
- Includes cleaning, inspection requirements.
- Maintenance frequency:
 - ✓ Coastal, industrial, inner-city areas: At least every 12 months, or more frequently if needed.
 - ✓ Sheltered, inland areas: Every 12 to 18 months.